SCARECROW FESTIVAL/COMPETITION

The Parish Council would like to thank everyone who helped to make the Scarecrow Festival such a success. There were so many imaginative scarecrows – 46 official entries and many, many more. The deserving and popular winner was ‘The Sleeping Giant’ at 130 Main Road. The event raised £173 for Francis House Children’s Hospice.

Thanks go to all the scarecrow builders and viewers, to Karen & Mike at the Red Lion for donating the prize, to Mrs Kettle, Goostrey News and The Trading Post for selling the lists of entries and to Lucy, the retiring Rose Queen for judging the competition.

A special mention for those who had the disappointment of seeing their creations vandalised but who, with good humour, repaired the damage.
